FULL-TIME TRAINING IN MELBOURNE, AUSTRALIA

Full-time training in Wing Chun Kung Fu is available at our Melbourne headquarters for people from around the world.

Benefits of Full-time Training

Full-time training allows practitioners to advance in their training of Wing Chun Kung Fu at a rapid rate. Because you are training intensively for several hours most days, your skills are developed and consolidated much more quickly than if you take just one or two lessons per week.

If you wish to become an Instructor and eventually run a school under our Association in the city or town in which you live, full-time training will allow you to reach this goal.

Full-time training is also beneficial to people who just want to add another dimension to their lives. Wing Chun Kung Fu is a way of life, builds self confidence, develops strong character, improves fitness, teaches self-defence skills, relieves stress and improves co-ordination and reflexes. It is an ancient art form that gives an insight into Chinese philosophy and history.

The head of our Association, Wing Chun Grandmaster William Cheung, is eighth in the direct line of descendants from Wing Chun's originator, Ng Mui. All classes are programmed by Grandmaster Cheung and all Instructors are trained by him.
