

Hello! The chocolate horses were a bit hit, with the dark ones going fast! And the entire family loved the boxed set. The art and craft are so nice but the flavor is out-of-the-world! There were a few pieces that had a great hint of salt to go with the sweetness. And the chocolate covered almonds? I am in rehab over these. My goodness.

Anyway, thank you and now that we know about you, we will be back!

I needed to buy a birthday present and wanted to do something different! This was my first time at Painted Turtle and I will definitely be back! Fantastic chocolate! What a hidden gem in Osseo!

Stumbled upon this cute chocolate shop a few months back. Shop and employees (especially my new friend Theresa) are super sweet and helpful. It's a must visit spot.
