

THE GLOBAL TRADITIONAL WING CHUN KUNG FU ASSOCIATION'S AUSTRALIAN 2019 WING CHUN SUMMER CAMP

INFORMATION SHEET

5 days of Intensive Training in Victoria's spectacular alpine region led by MASTER ANDREW CHEUNG – January 3 to 8, 2019

Date: Arrive Thursday afternoon, January 3 before dinner.
Depart after lunch, Tuesday January 8, 2019.
(3 Day Option available departing after lunch Sunday January 6)

Location: Howman's Gap Alpine Centre, Falls Creek, Victoria, Australia.
The camp is a 5 hour drive north east of Melbourne and is situated 4 kms below Falls Creek in dense forest on the edge of the Bogong High Plains, providing spectacular scenery of rugged mountain ranges and deep river valleys.

Accommodation: Howman's Gap offers comfortable chalet-style accommodation with 4 to 6 people per room. Blankets and pillows are supplied. Bring a towel, linen or a sleeping bag. Other facilities include conference room, BBQ, table tennis and large playing field.

Meals: All meals are included. Cereal, toast and a cooked breakfast are provided each morning, with lunch and a 3 course meal for dinner. Vegetarians and special dietary requirements can be catered for. Please advise us when you make your booking.

Other Activities: Other optional activities (some at extra cost) include: a challenging ropes course; hiking tracks; archery; basketball; orienteering; campfire (if weather permits).

Schedule: Begin the day with early morning conditioning. Wing Chun training takes place all morning and early afternoon starting the morning of January 4 and finishing lunch time January 8. There is free time for other activities in the afternoons after training.

Cost: Cost includes all meals, Wing Chun training and accommodation.
You will need to arrange your own transport to and from the camp.
